Chief Officer of Brigade

The following letter of the 12 June from Mr B. D.
Nockolds was read.

"I have very much pleasure in accepting the post of Chief Officer of the Sawbridgeworth Fire Brigade which you have very kindly offered me. Thanking you for the honour you have done me"

Drills

The Secretary reported that the National Fire Brigades Union had recommended Captain Miller of Leyton Fire Brigade & Supt. Woollard of the Ilford Brigade to give the Brigade a series of Drills. Captain Miller's charge would be £1. 1. 0 plus second class fare. but no reply had been received from Supt.
Woollard.

The Brigade considered that Captain Miller's charge was too high & the Secretary was directed to again write Supt. Woollard & also to enquire of Messrs Shand Mason & Co their charge for sending a man

Outing to Harlow

The Brigade decided to accept an invitation of
