

take place at Apsley Mills Hotel Hempstead on 25th June the Hon Secretary was directed to obtain tenders from two or three proprietors for conveying the Competitors to the Competition ground. -

It was agreed that one or two members of the Brigade other than the Competitors could attend the Competitions on paying half the cost of conveyance and also any other friends of the members on paying a full share of the cost.

Local Competitions

The question of the usual local Competitions was discussed & the matter was eventually left in the hands of the Committee to decide whether they take place this year or not.

Robt. G. Ashall